
PARKERSVILLE is the first noted township in the State of Washington. It was the site for many of Clark County's first settlers. The site located in the area of the present-day Port of Camas-Washougal office. Parkersville was founded by David C. Parker. (Drawing courtesy of the Camas-Washougal Historical Society)